BELDEMO WINS BY A NOSE.

ORPHAN LAD'S BAD ACTING AT THE POST CAUSES HIS DEFEAT.

Bobby Taylor Returns to Saddle After Two Years and Rides Essex II. to Victory—Whitney Horses En Route.

Washington, D. C., March 28.—The racing at Benning today was tame and uninteresting in the extreme. The defeat of Orphan Lad, the odds-on favorite for the third race by Beldemo, which was at the false price of 20 to 1, was the feature of the racing. Orphan Lad appeared to outclass the moderate opposition and the short price about him was eagerly taken, but the son of Fatherless has not improved over his two-year-old form so far as post manners are concerned. Radtke was unable to get him away on even terms with the others, while Beldemo broke like a quarter horse and led by several lengths into the stretch. Orphan Lad closed up very fast in the final furlong, but just failed to get up, though the finish was so close that a dead heat could easily have been made of it.

Bobby Taylor, one of the best amateur riders in the country, had his first mount in two years on Essex II. in the hunters' steeplechase and showed that he has not forgotten how, by riding a splendid race and winning with something to spare. He got quite an ovation.

Jockey Horner will be here tomorrow. He comes to ride Black Domino in the Dinner Stakes Saturday. She is considered a very likely candidate for this race.

The stewards have suspended the license of steeplechase jockey Rodrock on a report from the Pacific Jockey Club that Rodrock is not in good standing on the coast.

Four carloads of horses, the property of Harry Payne Whitney passed through here tonight en route from Aiken, S. C., to Sheepshead Bay. In the lot are the following two-year-olds:

Amateur, br. c, by Sandringham—Repute. Angelus, br. c, by Sandringham—Vespers. Bar None, ch. c, by Nasturtium—Equality. Bonnie Star, ch. f, by Star Shoot—Bonnie Blue II.

Brother Jonathan, ch. c, by Yankee—Sister Mary. Burgher, b. c, by Hamburg—Hurly Burly. Elegance, ch. f, by Ormeau—Kaleidoscope. Exquisite, b. f, by Yankee—Lady Agnes. Fancy, b. f, by Worcester—Regatta. King's Plate, br. c, by Sandringham—Xela. Mombassa, ch. f, by Nasturtium—The Lioness. Round and Round, b. c, by Sandringham—Irish Reel.

Stamina, b. f, by Nasturtium—Endurance by Right. Yorkville Beau, ch. c, by Hamburg—Yorkville Belle.

Chestnut colt, by Nasturtium—Ballyhoo. Bay colt, by Sandringham—Leisure. Bay colt, by Sandringham—Forget. Bay filly, by Hamburg—Melba. Bay filly, by Hamburg—Morningglade. Bay filly, by Hamburg—Kildoe. Chestnut filly, by Hamburg—Daisy F.

Burgher is a full brother to the great Burgomaster. King's Plate is a half-brother to Battelaxe. Mombassa is a half-brother to Chieftain. Round and Round is out of one of the fastest mares that raced on the American turf in the last decade. The chestnut colt by Nasturtium—Ballyhoo is a half-brother to that famous racer Ballyhoo Bey. The bay filly by Hamburg—Melba is a half-sister to Stalwart.

A good card all around is provided for tomorrow afternoon and with such horses as Workman, Berkeley, Scarfell; Lady Isabel, Blomber, Wedding; Lady Vera, Workmaid, Old Colony; Alpenmarchen, Faust, Stony Lee; Azelina, Lally, Wabash Queen; Ormonde's Right, Arimo and The Clown included among the entries, the racing in prospect appears unusually attractive.

EXCITING FINISH FOR THE PLACE.

Some Think Pinsticker Second in Closing Race at New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., March 28.—The attendance at the Fair Grounds this afternoon was small. Those who remained away did not miss much. The racing was not of a high order. The closing race was attended by a demonstration. Delmore, after a hard drive, won by a scant length with Lemon Girl, Ferroniere and Pinsticker next in order and noses apart. There were many who thought Pinsticker had earned second place. Pinsticker had raced in behind the winner until in the last sixteenth where he began to tire and Lemon Girl and Ferroniere both passed him in the last couple of strides. Lute Foster, Quinn Brady and Belle Strone outclassed their opponents to such an extent that the third, fourth and fifth races proved little better than walk-overs.

Donna was very sore going to the post in the fifth race and when the start came, she propped and was all but left. It was a mistake to permit her to start in her present condition.

The card for tomorrow is of the consolation order and given over to the platers, but among the entries are such useful horses as L. Ham, Orlandot, Hazel M.; Posing, Marvel P., Wild Irishman; Fantastic, Spion, Grace George; Gamester, Huntington, Dr. Young; Lady Caroline II., Parisian Model, Lute Foster; Cashier, Orline, Longbright; Brilliant, Fire Alarm and Quagga, and the racing should prove moderately interesting.

RACING COMMISSION TO MEET.

Lexington, Ky., March 28.—A meeting of the State Racing Commission has been called for Tuesday next. Secretary Rouse says insofar as he is aware, only routine business is to be transacted.

RUMORED INDICTMENT OF LAYERS.

Poor Racing at Oaklawn—Horsemen Are Preparing to Ship to Louisville.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 28.—It is a hard scrabble game at Oaklawn and it is well that Saturday is to be the last day. The "push and pull" clique is strongly in evidence and nothing comes in the nature of a surprise. Two or three deputy sheriffs were at the track this afternoon, but there was no interruption of the betting. The officers were serving subpoenas for the Grand Jury. It is rumored tonight that indictments have been returned against the seven bookmakers who have been laying the odds.

Nothing definite has been heard from L. A. Cella as to the proposed meeting at Delmar Park and horsemen here have come to the conclusion that there will be nothing doing at St. Louis. Accordingly they are making preparations to ship elsewhere. Louisville will be the destination of the majority and a special train is being arranged to transport the horses of the following owners to the Kentucky city: J. S. Hawkins, H. McCarren, Jr., T. P. Hayes, F. Luzader, G. W. Innes, G. W. J. Bissell, W. Eagan, J. W. O'Neill, H. R. Baker, S. P. Harlan, E. J. Gildersleeve, Stubbs Bros., F. Gering, Jr., and P. King. J. C. Milam will send his horses to Memphis to rest up a few days. Fred Forsythe came over from Memphis today. He says he will ship the majority of his horses to Canada in June and sell them at public auction. H. R. Baker has purchased jockey Trueman's contract from A. J. Freeman.

Excellent horses are in the fourth race of tomorrow and all appear attractive, such horses as Shirley Rosmore, Hasty, Toro; Ruth Nolen, La Rouge, Elude; Chancellor, Flip, Anna Ruskin; Pretension, Mike Sutton, Lady Vashiti; Clear Night, Hamlecar, Rulloba; Match, Dr. Lee Huffman and Attila showing among the entries and seeming to assure good racing.

J. L. Dempsey.

FIREBALL WINS FEATURE EASILY.

Good Weather and Big Crowd at Ascot—Horsemen Are Coming East.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 28.—Ideal racing conditions were the means of drawing out one of the largest crowds of the season to Ascot Park today. The card of seven races was well balanced throughout and was productive of good sport. The feature race was the fourth, taken by Fireball in hollow style. He was generously supported. Horsemen are fast leaving here for San Francisco and the east. W. A. McKinney shipped Von Tromp to New York today and will race him on the metropolitan circuit. W. T. Anderson sent Fustian and Taxer to Jamaica last night. C. E. Durnell got in yesterday and will remain until Saturday when he will leave for New York. Starter Dwyer left tonight for New Orleans where he starts for the two weeks at City Park beginning April 1. W. Duke will do the starting here tomorrow and Saturday.

The program for tomorrow again calls for the disposition of seven races and, with Joan of Arc, Fire Away, Mirabel; Money Muss, Laura F. M., Interlude; Miss Ruth, Gigana, Connie M.; Gorgalete, Madden, Belvoir; Winsome Ways, Elota, Esther B.; Virginia Lorraine, Elmdale, First Peep; Willie Gregg, Nun's Veiling and Black Eyes showing among the entries, the sport should be of an interesting character.

E. F. O'Malley.

GLORIFIER HAS TOP IMPOST.

New Orleans, La., March 28.—For Saturday, the last day of the season at the Fair Grounds, the features will be the Audubon Selling Stakes for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a sixteenth, and the Boston Club Handicap, likewise for three-year-olds and over at one mile and a sixteenth. Secretary Nathanson today announced the weights for the handicap, placing Glorifier at the top with 124 pounds. The weights of those considered most likely to start are: Emergency, 113; Pasadena, 112; St. Valentine, 112; Peter Sterling, 103; Envoy, 103; Granada, 100; Lancastrian, 98; Tileing, 97; Donna, 95; Yankee Girl, 95; Quinn Brady, 97; John L. Inglis, 105; St. Noel, 96; Gargantua, 90, and Fantastic, 95.

OAKLAND TRACK IS IMPROVING.

Oakland, Cal., March 28.—Under the influence of continued good weather the track is rapidly drying out and should be good by Saturday. Under this condition the class of entries is improving; also with such speedy ones as Vespa, Rustler, Robert Myer; Maud McG., Blanche C., Mitre; The Reprobate, Fred Bent, Magrane; Mechant, Briers, El Chihuahuas; Pal, Christine A., Silverskin; Curriculum, Hugh McGowan and Furze among those entered for tomorrow, the racing should prove spirited and interesting.

H. Forsland.

TOKALON GOES TO SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

New Orleans, La., March 28.—A carload of horses left for Sheepshead Bay this afternoon. In the lot were J. W. Fuller's Tokalon, First Premium and Toy Boy; A. Hamel's Notasulga and Wes, and L. Tauber's Consideration and Goldie. Mr. Fuller was called to his home in Texas. His father is seriously ill. His horses are in the care of A. Hamel.

COWDEN ENTERTAINS BREEDERS.

Lexington, Ky., March 28.—Elliott C. Cowden, formerly of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., who has established a breeding stud at Kirklevington Farm, gave a house warming dinner this afternoon at which Major F. A. Daingerfield, Colonel James E. Clay, Major T. J. Carson, Colonel E. F. Clay, T. C. McDowell, Milton Young, Catesby Woodford, Thomas Moore, S. C. Lyne and others were present.

Jeremiah, away poorly and mishandled, closed a big gap into a fast going second. Import outbroke the others and led to the stretch, where he tired, but finished a game third. Willie T. was repeatedly pulled up and knocked about and finished with a belated end rush in a race that must be thrown out. Rivista, away poorly and badly outrun for the first quarter, made up much ground in the stretch and is promising. Robert Myer showed superior early speed, but tired as if short and is a good looker. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.
Scratched—67681 Macall, 110.

Went to post at 2:09. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Sycamore, from a poor send off, rapidly moved up and challenging in the last furlong won out in the last stride. Joyful showed the most early speed, but tired in the final drive. Kruka broke badly in close quarters and was repeatedly shut off and finished securely pocketed. Sibari, shut off early, was gaining at the end. Valadola, shuffled to the rear at the start, made up ground. Yank quit after going a speedy five furlongs. Anopus was short and was prominent for a half.
Scratched—67483 Rosal, 112.

Went to post at 2:32. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Convent Bell was shuffled back early, but closed up rapidly in the middle running, challenged in the last quarter and won out in a game finish. Mitre broke well and reserved under a pull for the first half, drew out on the last turn and seemed all over the winner in the stretch, but succumbed under an inadequate finish. Nancy W., away badly, closed a big gap into a fast going third. Cheers failed to stay after six furlongs of forward contention. Tetanus had no chance after the start, but closed a big gap. Silver Line quit early. E. B. H. showed speed for a half. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—B. h, by Rey el Santa Anita—Orange Leaf, by Rutherford (trained by W. C. Vivell).
Went to post at 2:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third the same. Veterano, slow as usual at the start, steadily improved his position, caught the leaders firing in the last furlong and won running off. Bonar got away badly and saved ground on the first turn, but was forced into deep going all the way and fired finally after appearing all over the winner. Eduardo, luckily and skillfully placed throughout, was finally anchored in the deep inside going. Jerusha, shuffled to the rear at the start, closed a big gap and is very good. Briarthorpe loomed up menacingly on the far turn, but tired finally. Royal Red, probably short, was prominent for the first six furlongs. Ero Pyro displayed speed for a mile. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
Scratched—67870 Alice Cary, 102.

67935 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. (1:12-6-118.) Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $325.

SHOW THIS TO THE REFORMERS.

In the twelve years since the passage of the Percy-Gray law the state of New York has received $1,494,263.71 as a result of the tax of 5 per cent.
on the gross receipts of each track. In 1895 the tax was $27,270.74; in 1896, $50,608.10; in 1897, $64,034.61; in 1898, $80,483.85; in 1899, $90,791.74;
in 1900, $98,671.53; in 1901, $128,581.50; in 1902,
$170,085.88; in 1903, $200,741.67; in 1904, $190,
256.30; in 1905, $193,714.43, and last year, $201, 033.71, a record breaker.

"Last year, therefore," says the report of the State Racing Commission to the Legislature, "exceeded in public patronage that of any of the seasons since 1894, and this public patronage success of racing means personal advantage to many thousands of persons in various vocations. Racing gives direct employment to very large numbers.
Racing stables are large and generous purchasers
of articles of food for men and horses, of clothing and of equipment. It is within facts that the average annual cost of the keep, care and training of thoroughbreds other than a yearling, is in excess of $700. As there may be estimated to be at least 2,500 thoroughbreds in training in New York state for at least seven months in the year and about 1,800 for the remaining five months there is expended for these purposes in excess of $1,650,000.
This does not include the salaries of trainers and jockeys, nor does it represent any interest in the investments which, every year, are made for the replenishment of establishments at public auction or private sales, aggregating a very large sum. For example, there were last year sold at auction in the state 1,070 yearlings for a total of $767,415, or an average of $717 per head, which figures demonstrate that the breeding industry is in a thriving condition and due practically exclusively to racing in this state, regulated and safeguarded as it is by law."

Since 1897 it is shown that $17,125,780 has been paid out in premiums to successful horsemen, and

DATES TO BADEN-BADEN MEETING.

The International Baden-Baden meeting will commence Friday, August 23, and will continue until Sunday, September 1. The International Race Committee is the same as last year, the president being the Comte de Furstenberg-Herdringen, with Baron von Oertzen and Herr Haniel the acting stewards. The Vicomte d'Harcourt, Baron A. de Schickler and M. A. du Bos will represent France.
Many of the prizes have been augmented in value,
the added money to the Grand Prize of Baden-Baden being raised from £2,500 to £3,000, while the entrance fee has been reduced from 30 sovereigns to 25 sovereigns. Entries for this important race, which is open to horses of all countries, must be made before Tuesday, April 2. On the opening day the programme will include the Furstenberg Memorial, the Prix Hamilton, named after the Duke of Hamilton, and the Prix Wellgunde, an open steeplechase. The programme of the second day, Sunday, August 25, includes the Cosmoopolitan Handicap and the old Baden-Baden Steeplechase. The principal 2-year-old races will be run on Tuesday, August 27, and the Grand Prix is fixed for Saturday, August 31. The members of the committee are putting forth a number of attractions to induce foreign owners to support the meeting, and a round of entertainment will be provided for visitors.

SIR HUON IS DOING WELL.

Louisville, Ky., March 28.—There are now about 250 horses in training here, 200 at Churchill Downs and fifty at Douglas Park. George J. Long has twenty at Churchill Downs, including Sir Huon, winner of the Kentucky Derby last year, and Arcite,
the present favorite for that great race this year,
and Altuda and Victoria B., candidates for the Kentucky Oaks. Sir Huon is in splendid condition.
He will remain in the west until after the Queen City Handicap at Latonia. Mr. Long expects him to repeat his triumph of last year in that race. Other owners stabled at Churchill Downs are: Lon Jones, with 10; Miller Henderson, 28; L. V. Bellow, 9;
A. C. Bellow, 9; B. F. Guthrie, 7; Carroll P. Reid,
6; Joe Pugh, 10; J. H. Baker, 13; C. Hak & Sons,
6; J. B. Lewman, 6; W. H. Robinson, 12; Dan Leaban, 3, and several others with two or three horses each.

PROTEST AGAINST "CLOCKERS."

Owners and trainers at Benning are complaining bitterly against the multitude of work-watches swarming the track during the morning hours. These persons, it must be understood, are not racing enthusiasts drawn to the course through fondness for the horses. There would be no objection to the presence of hundreds of such people. The men against whom the trainers have registered their kicks are those who are paid by bookmakers and tipsters to time the trials of the horses. A strong petition, it is said, is to be presented to the Jockey Club with the hope that such men will be forbidden the privilege of the New York tracks
during the morning hours.

NEW STUD IN VIRGINIA.

Alvin and Oscar Portner, who have established a stud farm near the historic town of Manassas,
Va., have put the Hanover stallion Dolce Far Niente at the head of it. They have already some youngsters by Dolce Far Niente and they are good lookers. The Portners are just back from a winter's tour through Europe and are now at Benning.

HERMITAGE BREAKS DOWN.

New York, March 28.—Hermitage will not start in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct April 15. J.
L. McGinnis, in whose stable the four-year-old son of Loyalist and Madge was being trained for General
F. C. McLewee, says the colt has broken down.

END OF OAKLEY PARK TRACK.

Cincinnati, O., March 28.—The transfer of the Oakley racetrack to the Oakley Park Land Company for $190,000 was made complete yesterday when
A. J. Welch of Hartford, Conn., signed the papers.
The track will be cut up into building lots.

M'LENNAN TO SOLICIT ENTRIES.

New Orleans, La., March 28.—Joe McLennan left here tonight for Hot Springs to solicit entries for the stakes to be decided at Windsor and Fort Erie and which close April 2.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Mountain is in great favor with the race-goers at Benning.

Mars Cassidy rides to the starting posts at Benning on a handsome saddle horse.

M. Maurice Caillault, for whom Johnny Reiff is riding in France, has over forty horses in training.

Sol Lichtenstein, the bookmaker, was thrown out of a carriage en route to Benning Wednesday, but was not injured.

Jockey Shaw writes that he is well pleased with his prospects in Germany. He says the horses
George Walker is training for Weinberg Brothers
"all look like Roseboms to me."

Went to post at 2:15. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving; third driving.
Laura F. M., off flying on the outside, took an early and easy lead and, showing the most speed throughout, never left the result in doubt. Pinta ran well and in a sharp last sixteenth drive finished gamely.
Bellotta showed speed, but tired palpably when the pinch came. Pugurtha finished with a rush. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. f. by The Commoner—Suisun (trained by J. Curl).
Went to post at 2:49. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same; third easily.
Common Sue displayed great speed for five and one-half furlongs, but tired in the last sixteenth, just lasting long enough under a weak ride. Nappa had to come around for clear sailing when turning for home, made no ground fast in the final eighth, finishing resolutely, almost got up, but Belchamber closed no ground rapidly in the last eighth, finishing like a flash. Pepper and Salt finished fast and gamely under the whip. Elancer quit badly. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

Winner—Ch. g. by Ben Stroome—Sly Nun (trained by A. White).
Went to post at 3:14. Off at once to a good start. Won cantering; second driving; third easily.
Fireball, in a soft spot, simply played with his opponents, spreadeagling them after the first eighth had been run. Dominus Arvi in a desperate last sixteenth drive outstayed Mintia, but crossed toward the inside rail in the final sixteenth, interfering with Zelina, for which he was disqualified. Mintia was placed second and Givonni Balerio third. Mintia in a long stretch drive finished gamely. Givonni Balerio closed up ground in the final eighth. Silver Stocking ran out at the head of the stretch.

 Went to post at 3:55. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Beldemo got away fast, ran in greatly improved form and led all the way, but just lasted long enough to win. Orphan Lad, away badly and sluggish in the early stages, closed a big gap and appeared the winner at the sixteenth post, but at the end swerved under a drive and was tiring badly. Puritan Girl showed speed and may improve. Sally K. ran poorly. Betsy Binford quit badly after showing early speed.

 Went to post at 4:21. Off at once to good start. Won easily; second and third the same. Essex II. was easily best and was well handled by Mr. Taylor, made his challenge in the last turn of the field and, catching Lysistrata two fences from the finish, always held him safe thereafter. Lysistrata showed a good turn of speed, jumped well and hung on well in the final drive. Angle was a beaten off third. The others were never serious contenders. Bowling Bridge was always a close contender and hung on well in the final drive. Lone Hand ran a fairly good race and should improve. HOLSCHER NOT TO JUMP THIS YEAR.

William Shields has decided not to put Holscher through the field. The winner of the Dixie and Maximum staks and the Washington Cup last season, which started Tuesday at Benning in the handicap won by Sonoma Belle from Ormonde's Right and Saylor, will continue to race on the flat through this season at least. Holscher wintered well, but he was so sore last fall when he went into quarters Shields had to blister him severely. He was so long recovering from the effects of that painful treatment the young Canadian could not school him as carefully as he needed to be to run races through the field this season. Holscher will be trained especially for the distance races run in the summer and autumn. Shields is not without hope of winning another Brighton Cup with the Lamplighter 4-year-old, and he thinks it a cinch Holscher will win the Maximum and the Cup here next fall if he can be got to the post fit.

MILLER'S STIRRUPS TOO SHORT.

After the defeat of Glaucus by Dead Gone in the two-year-old race at Benning Wednesday, James McLaughlin, the former great rider, owner of Glaucus, said: "My horse was defeated only because Miller had no control of him. Miller rides with such short stirrups that he swings above the horse's withers and over his neck to such an extent that he has no purchase with his knees and therefore no control over the tiring animal. My advice to the young man would be to lengthen his leathers a few inches and there will be improvement in his finishes. Miller's success lies more in his ability to get away from the post ahead of the other riders than anything else."
